Additional information/resources to help you complete this task

We strongly recommend each student purchases their own copies of the texts they will study so that they can make notes throughout the course. It is essential that each student has the correct edition of the examination texts - the versions we would recommend you to purchase are listed below. We have included the ISBN number and pictures of the front cover to show you which text will be used to enable you to get the same edition. All books are easily available from Amazon, Wordery and many other retailers.

Please note that students must have read the following texts before they commence the course in September. However, as reading an entire Shakespeare play for the first time can be tricky, watching a version of 'Twelfth Night' would suffice so that students are familiar with the plot. The 2017 National Theatre production of the play is within the NT archive, to which we have access. Use the login details below:

SWCHS is committed to ensuring that all students have the materials and resources which they need to succeed. If you believe your child will be eligible for financial support from September, then please liaise with the Sixth Form who can give more information on applying for a Bursary.

If there is a concern around being able to purchase the texts and therefore reading them before September, please do contact the English Department and we will be happy to help. Please note that Twelfth Night, The Bloody Chamber and Dracula texts are available on-line.
